

Development of the size (individuals) of the NW/SW European mid-winter population of Greylag Geese based on IWC imputed values from 1980–2023, with (solid line) and without (dot-dashed line), as well as special goose count schemes in Denmark and the Netherlands. The dashed black line represents the target for the wintering population, and the red dashed line represents the special count schemes.