

Co-creation workshop on science-based advice

When: 30 November-1 December (lunch to lunch)

Where: VAC Ghent, Kon. Maria Hendrikaplein 70, 9000 Ghent, Belgium

DAY1/Thursday afternoon 30. November 2023

Joint session Advanced training course & Co-creation workshop:

Time	Content
12.30 – 13.30	Lunch/arrival of workshop participants
13.30 – 14.00	Welcome and presentation of participants course and workshop Niels Halberg, AU
14.00 – 16.45 Part 4	Joint session: Science for policy -role of stakeholder involvement How to include stakeholders with different agendas Facilitators: Elke, Anna (ILVO)
14.00 – 15.00	14.00: Mads de Wolff, Danish Agricultural Agency: What is the role of science in policy and regulation – also considering the many different societal and political interests at stake. 14.25: Riccardo Bocci Director of the Italian NGO “Rete Semi Rurali”: How do we seek influence as an interest group and what is the role of scientific evidence in our work? 14.50: Debate
15.00 – 15.30	Break
15.30 – 16.45	15.30: Pasi Rikkonen (LUKE): The use of scenarios in climate policy planning: an assessment of actors’ experiences and lessons learned in Finland. 15.50: Kristiaan Kok (Free University Amsterdam, TBC): The use of co-creation in the science-policy interface 16.15: Debate and discussions on the role of science when dealing with strong conflicts of interest. What is the role of the scientist? When is co-creation an option?
16.45 – 17.00	Final reflections and follow up Facilitators: Thomas, Lene, Anja (AU)
17.00	End of joint session/ end of advanced training course

17: Dinner in downtown Ghent

DAY 2/Friday 1. December 2023

Co-creation workshop on science-based advice

Time	Content
8.30 – 9:00	Welcome and introduction to day 3 Niels Halberg, AU
9.00 – 10.30 Part 2	Examples of co-creation Examples of solutions and best-practices when creating solutions with involvement of stakeholders and/or policy-makers Facilitators: Anja, Thomas, Lene (AU)
9.00 – 10.30	Cases representing co-creation – tools and processes 9.00: Nils Ferrand (INRAE): “CoOPLAaGE” R&D program, a set of innovative participatory methods to support multi-level management and governance of water and territories between communities, policy makers and experts. 9.30: Pascale Frey-Klett (INRAE) + Irene Carravieri (INRAE, TBC): “CiTique”, INRAE’s participatory research tool/programme on ticks 10.00: Giampiero Mazzocchi and Tommaso Pomponi (CREA): Co-learning from a shared process: the partnership table with stakeholders in the CAP reform process. The experience of CREA
10.30 – 10.45	Break
10.45 – 13.00 Part 3	What is the role of scientists in co-creation? What are the pitfalls? What can be gained from sharing best practices and tools? What are conditions under which co-creation becomes appropriate? Facilitated discussions/group work on important issues Facilitators: Elke, Anna (ILVO)
13.00 – 13.30	Final reflections, take home messages, follow-up Facilitators: Thomas, Lene, Anja (AU)
13.30	End of workshop/lunch