

11th Tensions of Europe Conference, Frankfurt/Oder

Panel: Towards sustainability of global resources, fair trade and global justice? Experiences, challenges and narratives of transformation

Organizers: Matthias Heymann (Aarhus University), Elena Kochetkova (University of Bergen)

Friday, 20 September 2024

Session 1

1. Sotiris Alexakis, Yannis Fotopoulos and Stathis Arapostathis (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece), "Seeds, Breeds and the multiple faces of Productivism in Greek Agriculture, 1920-2000"
2. Frank Veraart and Maliene Kip (Eindhoven University), Maite van den Borre and Bram Bouwens (Utrecht University), 'Beauty is in the eye of....', value competition, alignment, and conflict in the development of transnational trade in resources.
3. Matthias Heymann (Aarhus University), Narratives of Global Fat: Aarhus Oliefabrik and United Plantations Company

Session 2

4. Ihediwa, Nkemjika Chimee (University of Nigeria, Nsukka), The development of harbour and steamship infrastructure for resource extraction and distribution: Colonial Nigeria in perspective
5. Elena Kochetkova (University of Bergen), State Socialism and the Sustainable Use of Natural Resources
6. Jiří Janáč (Czech Academy of Sciences, Prague), Discussing the Environment - Technology Nexus at the 1971 UNECE Symposium on Environmental Problems

Session 3

1. Julia Lajus (NIAS, Amsterdam), Blue economy and environmental justice: how fish migrations complicated the picture
2. Vanessa Arteaga, Eduardo Erazo Acosta (University Nariño, Pasto), Colombia Indigenous epistemology versus big mining in Columbia and Ecuador
3. Antonis Kechribaris, Panagiotis Kazantzias, Aristotle Tympas (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens), Resources and their discourses: From 'soft energy' to 'renewable energy sources'